ENTERS A PROTEST

Mass Meeting Opposes Seating of Representative Roberts.

THE SPEAKERS CONDEMN POLYGAMY

Extracts Bearing Upon the Alleged Mormon Revelations.

SOLUTION OF PROBLEM

Representative-elect Roberts of Utah was held yesterday afternoon at the First Congregational Church. The large auditorium and galleries and every available spot of At the conclusion of the voluntary Rev.

Dr. S. M. Newman requested that the audience sing a part of the hymn, beginning: "Come Thou Almighty King," which was one. A selection of Scripture was read by Rev. Dr. J. G. Butler. The selection comwhich contained the Ten Cemmandments, following which prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Wishard.

nt and expressing sympathy with the objects of the meeting were read from Rev. Dr. Hamlin of the Church of the Covenant, Rev. Dr. Wallace Radcliffe of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, Rev. Ir. S. H. Greene of Calvary Baptist Church and Bishop Satterlee of the diocese of Washington, following which Rev. Dr. Jo-siah Strong of New York was introduced as the presiding officer of the occasion.

Here to Protest.

Dr. Strong said, in part: "We are here to protest against a lawbreaker taking his place among the lawmakers of the country. He and his friends are very willing to have the country think that the opposition to Mr. Roberts arises from sectarianism. We are here not as republicans or democrats, not as members of denominations, but as Methodists, Presbyterians, Episcopalians and others, all united in maintaining the sanctity of the home.

'It is impossible,' he said, 'to strike at Mormon politics without striking at the Mormon religion. In Utah the Mormon church and the state are identical. We open the state are identical.

ose Mormonism because its practices tend uproot the affairs of the nation. "Instead of wishing that these polygimists throw their plural wives and illegal hildren aside we wish it was in our power compel them to support the women they have wronged and the children they have branded with infamy." Dr. Strong asserted that it was practical-by settled that Mr. Roberts would not be permitted to sit in the House of Representatives. About the only question in the matter was that of the size of the vote. But what was wanted was an amendment to the Constitution of the United States by which polygamy will be made a crime against the nation, and this it was intended to secure, if possible, Dr. McKim's Views.

Rev. Dr. R. H. McKim, rector of the Church of the Epiphany, said one of the most important questions before the pation today was. Shall a convicted felon stand in the Capitol and assist in making the laws for the country? A second question was, or democrats—all should be patriots. Mr. Roberts represents the enemies of the purity of womanhood and the sanctity of the home. Mormonism aims to hold the balance of power in the states west of the Rocky mountains, and the question is, Shall than attended from the provided from the states. they be stopped now or be permitted to go on until they shall be able to hold the balance of power in the electoral college and tan M. E. Church, in part, said: "We are not opposed to the singularity of the Mor-mon's religion, but to the plurality of his wives. We are here to challenge the en-croachments of Mormonism upon the very government itself, and to prevent it from syreading its poisonage breath upon the government itself, and to prevent it from spreading its poisonous breath upon the land. For thirty-six years polygamy has been a crime, and it has been defended in the very halls of Congress. It has been said that polygamy is dead; polygamy is living. Roberts is not only a polygamist, but he glories in it, and if he is admitted. Congress it will soon be found that ygamy is not only alive, but hissing and

ing. The glory of the American nation, it has been said, is our country's wornanhood, and if our glory as a people is to be main-tained the purity of our womanhood must maintained.

Mrs. Sarah J. Elliott, who for seven years drs. Sarah J. Elliott, who for seven years overed as a deaconess of the Episcopal surch in Utah, said in part: Many of a Mormon women are just as honest in air belief as are the women of this part the country. They are just as good others. Not long ago, she said, she visital a home where there were pluved without the country. a home where there were plural wives, and one of them told her what a beautiful hing plural marriages are. "You women, aid the plural wife, "marry the man you have a man around all the time. Her hus-band, she said, visited her once a month, she entertained him the best she could and then dismissed him for a month Women Favor Polygamy.

The Mormon women are not opposed to olygamy, and there is no use to try to get hem to abandon it. The only hope in efoften happens that a man marries a mother nd daughter, or two or three sisters. There we gone insane when their husband took Continuing, Mrs. Elliott said the chileren are willing to learn anything, and her experience had taught her that mis-sion schools wherever planted in Utah have ne great good. Mormon women are not ignorant lot of people; they read a ar ignorant lot of people; they read a great deal. Some people have asked, why do not these women leave the polygamous husbands. It would not be an easy thing for a woman to do this. If she did she would have to leave her children to her husband. He is the god who is to take them into heaven. She made an earnest appeal that work be done toward reaching the children of Mormon parents and depeal that work be done toward reaching e children of Mormon parents, and de-ared her belief that the education of the hildren along high moral lines was the solution of the Mormon problem.

Strong explained that Mrs. Elliott one, but she had spoken in the strain she had because of her great love for the Mor-mon mothers and children. Mr. A. T. Schroeder, a lawyer of Salt Lake City, said, in part; "The question of ake City, said, in part: "The question of the admission of Mr. Roberts was not one of politics, but one of decency. The fight s not one against Roberts, but against the is not one against Roberts, but against the iniquitous system he represents. In Utah 75 per cent of the people are Mormons, and of course control legislation. In Idaho and Wyoming they hold the balance of power and they have in both states been able to tie up the legislature of each until a messenger from Sait Lake reached the capital and presumably made such a deal as was and presumably made such a deal as was dictated by the Mormon leaders. The Mordictated by the Mormon leaders. The Mor-mons, he declared, very nearly control twelve United States senators, and in a close election they might be able to say who might or might not be President of the who might or might not be President of the United States.

It is said that their missionaries have made 65,000 converts during the past year, and he had heard during the past few weeks that in future no statistics as to the increase would be given out, if it was known how rapidly Mormonism was spreading through the country, too much alarm would be created.

Concerning Revelations.

As showing how revelations are procured by some of the Mormon leaders, Mr. Schroeder read the following, which was stated by President J. M. Grant: "You must study it in your own mind, then you and at the station. Telephone call 1441 for must ask me if it be right; I will cause that H. W. FULLER, General Passenger Agent.

The speaker also quoted the following from a sermon by Apostle Grant: "What would a man of God say who felt right when Joseph asked him for his money? He would say, 'Yes, and I wish I had more to help to build up the kingdom of God.' Or, if he came and said." I want your wife.' if he came and said, 'I want your wife, if he came and said, 'I want your wife.'

Oh, yes, 'he would say, 'here she is, there are plenty more.'"
Also this by Orson Pratt: "The Lord has told us that it required of every man in the church to lay all things, not one-tenth alone, but to lay all things before the bishop of his church; consecrate the whole of it—everything he had—his flocks and herds—his cattle, horses and mules—his gold and silver—his wearing apparel, watches, jeweiry and everything he possesses; consecrate it; not like Annanias, keep back a portion, and his wife, but give everything—make a full consecration to beeverything-make a full consecration to begin with. (Voice in the stand—Wives and children? Yes, give wives and children, of course; the wives have given themselves to their husbands and He has to consecrate them; they are the Lord's. He has only lent them to us."

Head of the Priesthood.

Likewise this from the official organ of the Mormon Church: "Did the Prophet Joseph want every man's wife he asked for? He did not, but in that thing was the grand head of the priesthood developed. The grand object in view was to try the people of God to see what was in them. If such a man of God what was in them. It such a man of your should come to me and say, 'I want your gold and silver, or your wives,' I would say, 'Here they are, I wish I had more to give you, take all I have got.' A man who has got the spirit of God and the light of eternity in him has no trouble about such matters."

Mr. Schroeder answered a number questions, one of which was: When did Mr. Roberts take his wives? The reply was: The first in 1870, the second in 1883, the third in 1896, for perhaps three years previously.

The meeting was closed by the singing of "My Country, Tis of Thee," the repetition of the Lord's prayer, Bishop Hurst leading, and the benediction, also by the sishop. Rev. Dr. T. C. Iliff, superintendent of M. E. missions, was present, but he did not take any part in the exercises.

A second question was, brilling the country of th the participants there is every prospect that the fund will make a very considerable progress in the near future. A design of an engraved receipt, which will constitute a handsome souvenir, was submitted to the committee by Mr. O. G. Staples, and after some discussion the matter was left in the hands of a committee consisting of O. G. Staples, Thomas C. Noyes and George W. sign for a souvenir receipt. There was discussion, and a favorable one, on the idea of holding a large entertainment at one of the city theaters for the benefit of the fund. The members of the congressional delegation, both in the Senate and House, from Maryland and the governor of the state were made honorary members of the committee.
